vault

Wall Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

each module size, has it's own template/wall mount attachment,
you need to have at least one full size template
for every size of your module - for templating

·· 1 ·····

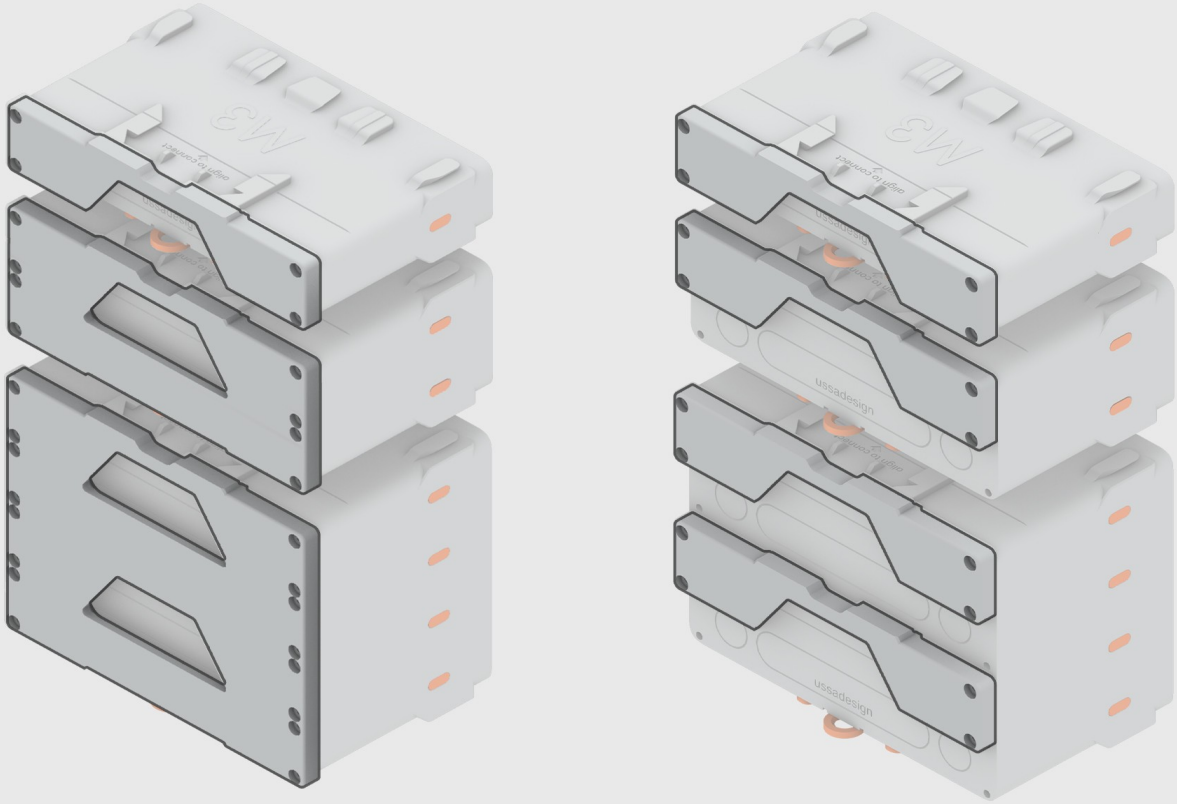

·· ·····

·· ·····

vault

Wall Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

it's technically possible to use 1F variants of wall mounts, but you won't be able to use them as templates later on

·· 2 ·····

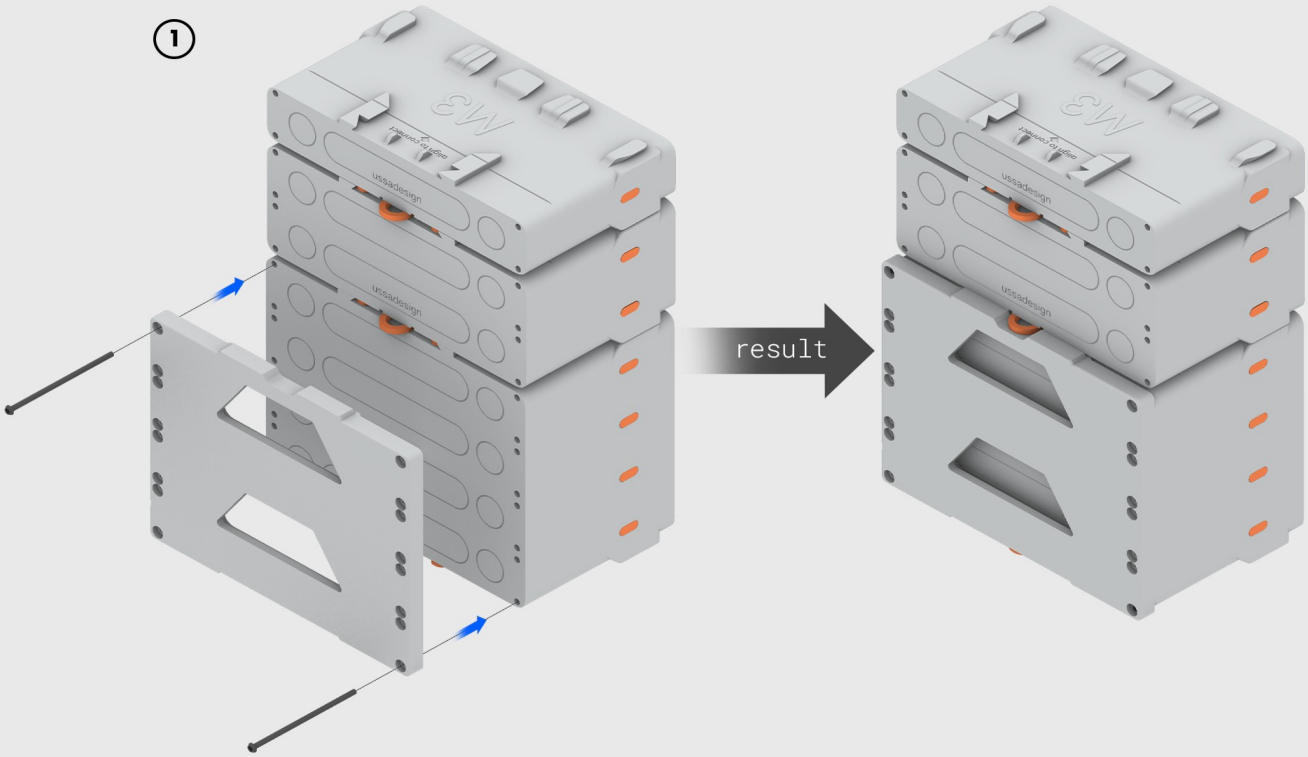

·· ·····

·· ·····

vault

Wall Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

1. we need to temporarily attach wall mount, and use it as a template, see next page

·· 3 ·····

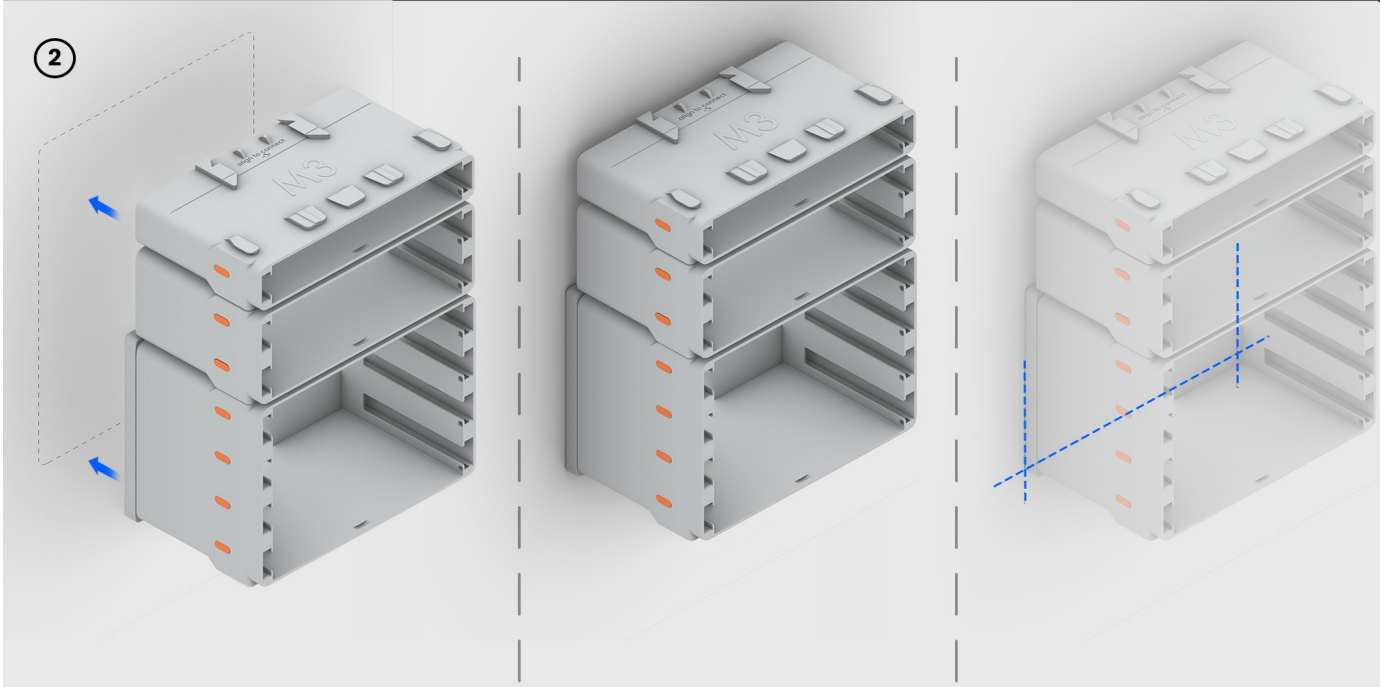

·· ·····

·· ·····

vault

Wall Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

2. after aligning your tower, the way you intend to hang it, mark the sides and bottom with a pencil

·· 4 ·····

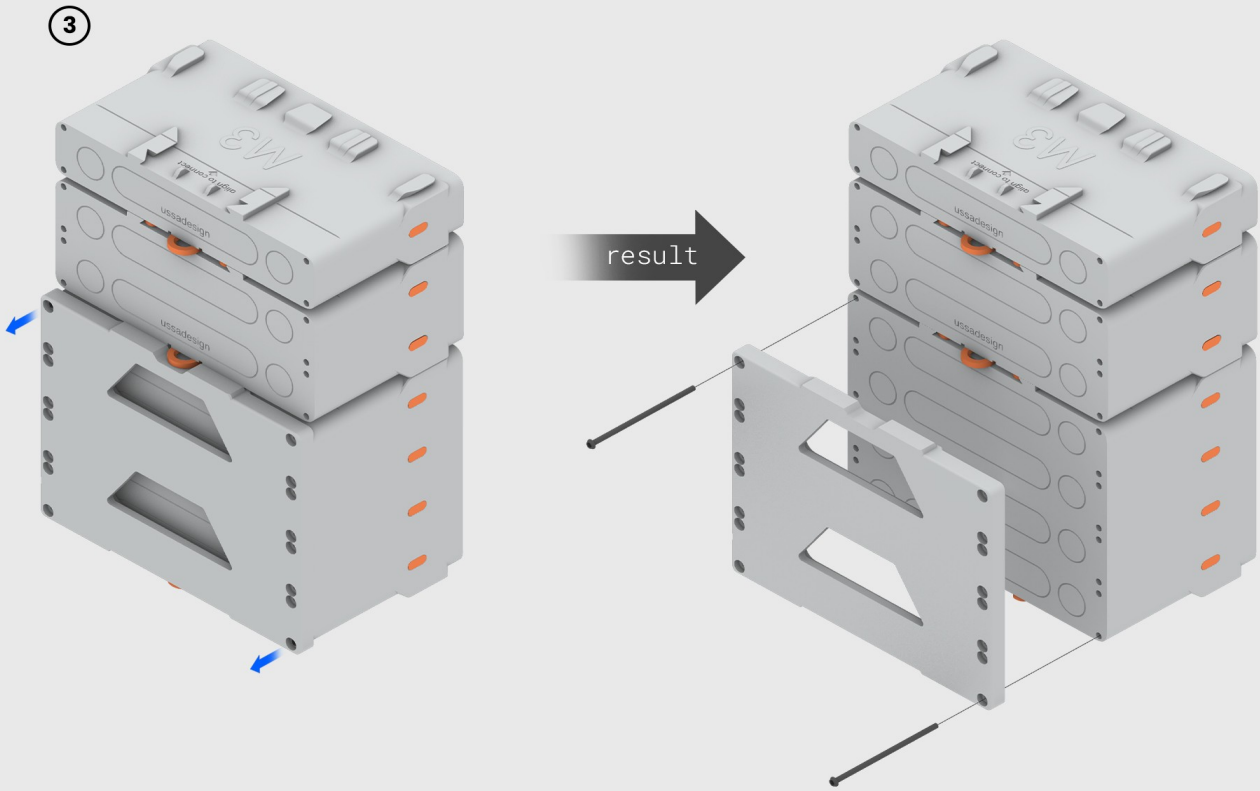

·· ·····

·· ·····

vault

Wall Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

3. now we can detach the wall mount from a tower,
or use an identical one for the next step

·· 5 ·····

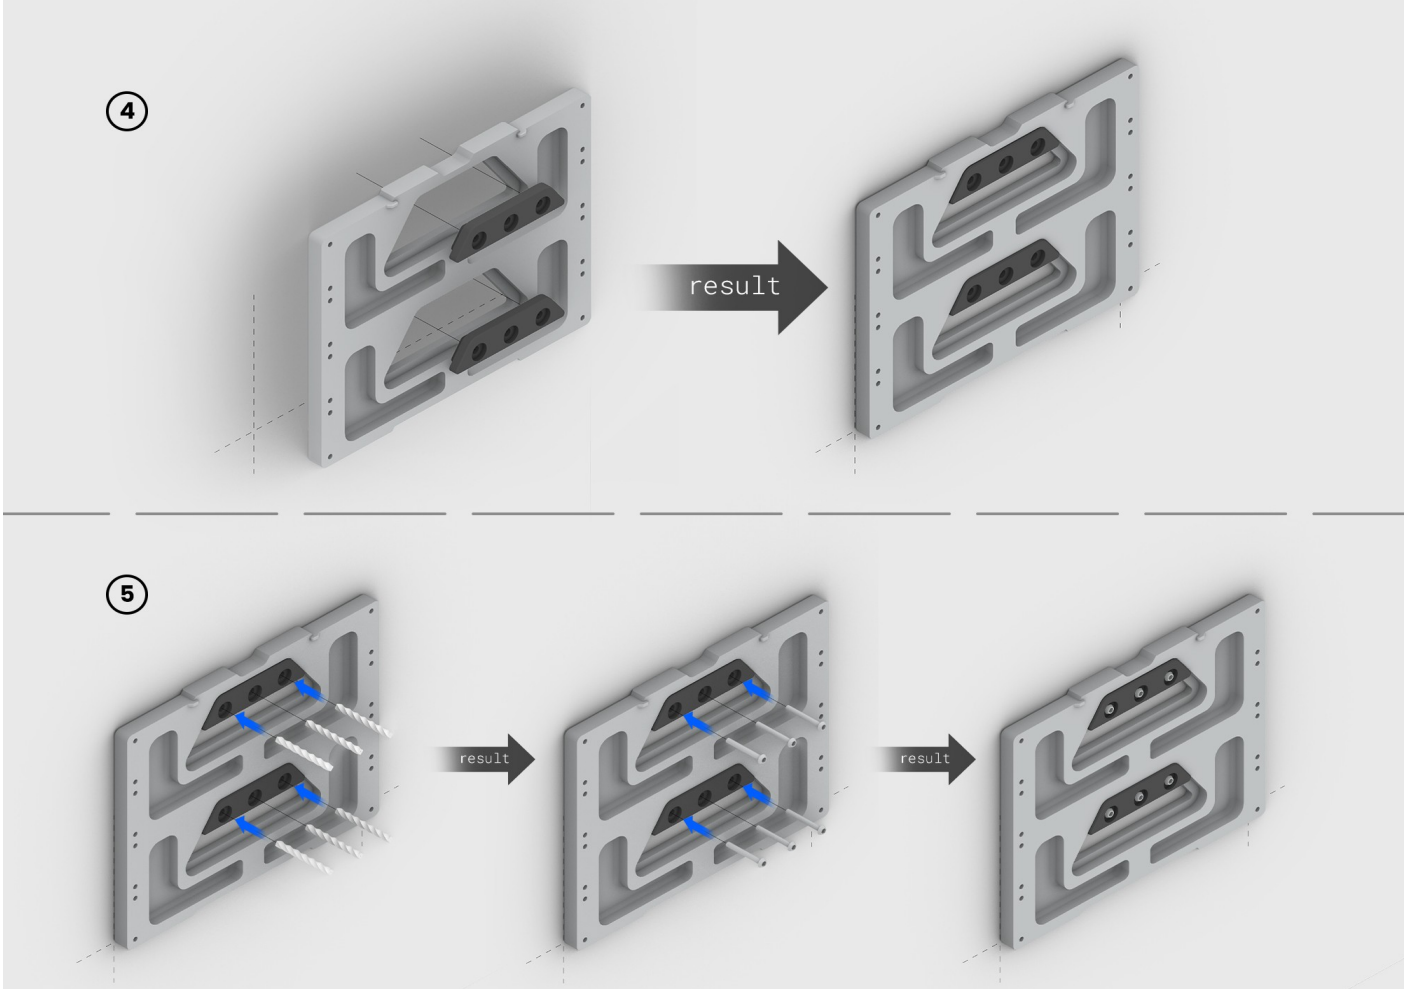

·· ·····

·· ·····

vault

Wall Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

4. place the wall mount and a “second part” to previous marked spot
5. drill into a wall for anchors, or use screws if it’s wood and attach the “second piece” to your wall

·· 6

····· (French Cleat) ··

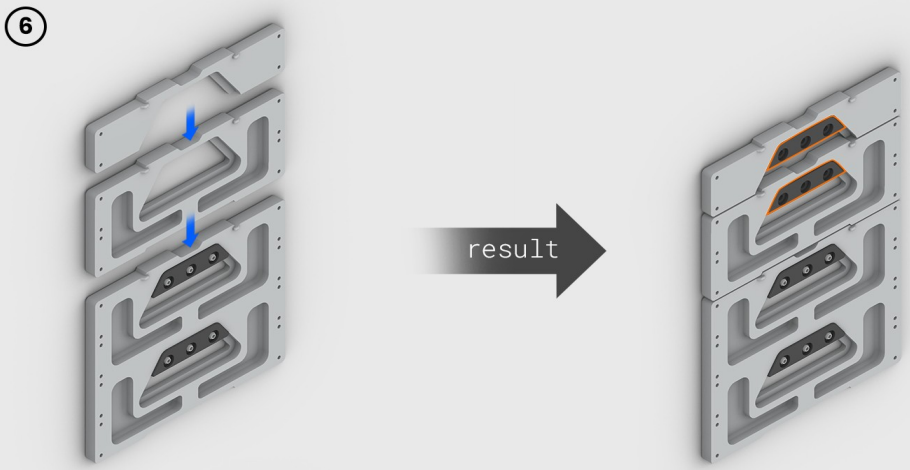

·· ·····

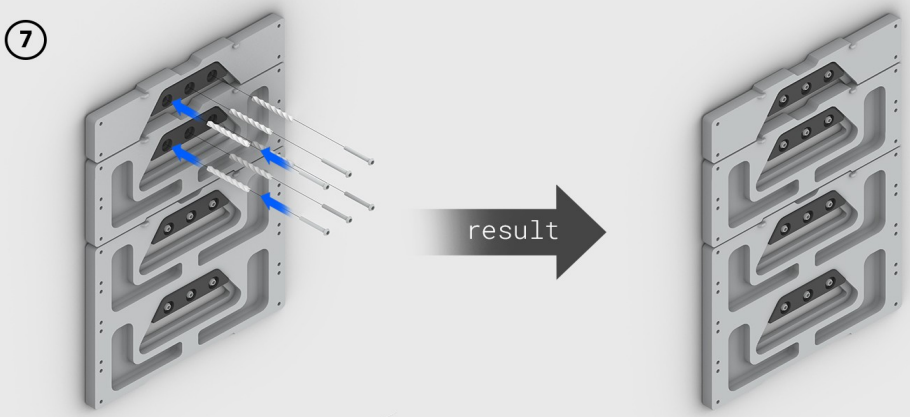

·· ·····

vault

Wall Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

6. after fixing the first wall mount, you can stack all other floors on top
7. and use the same steps as above, to fix other floors to the wall

.. 7 ·····

.. ·····

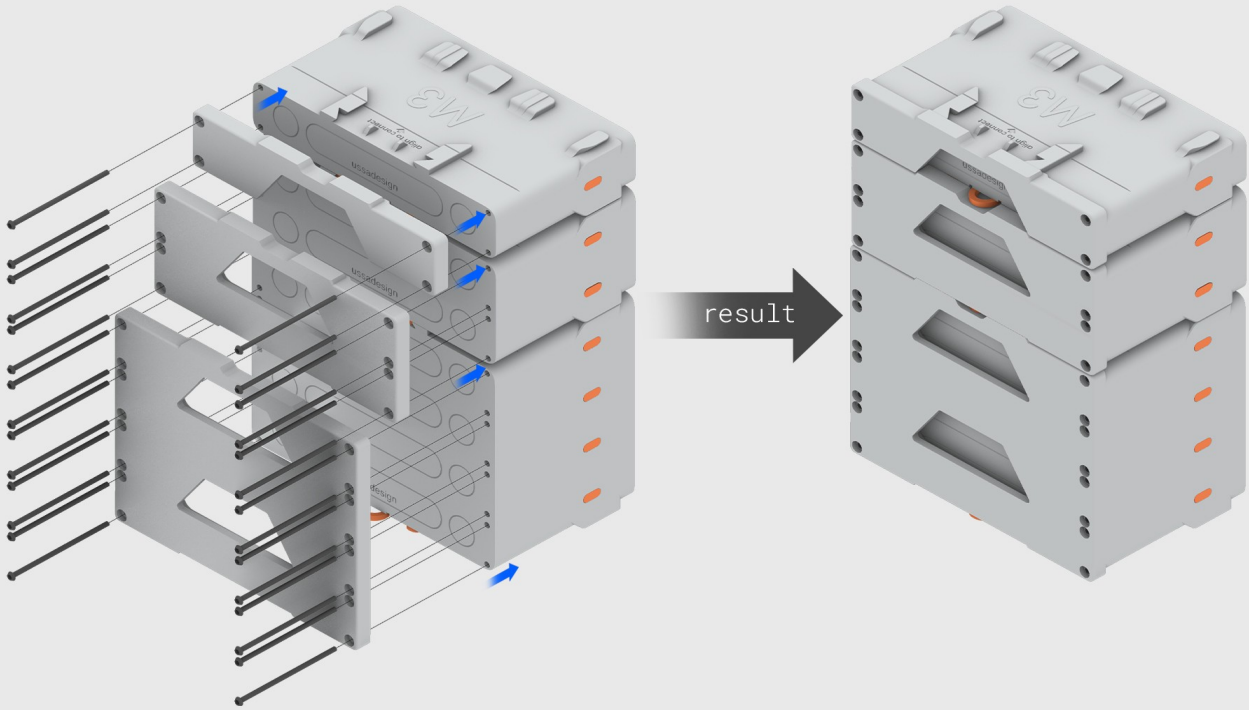

.. ·····

vault

Wall Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

8

8. attach the wall mounts to your tower

·· 8

M6 ·····

·· ·····

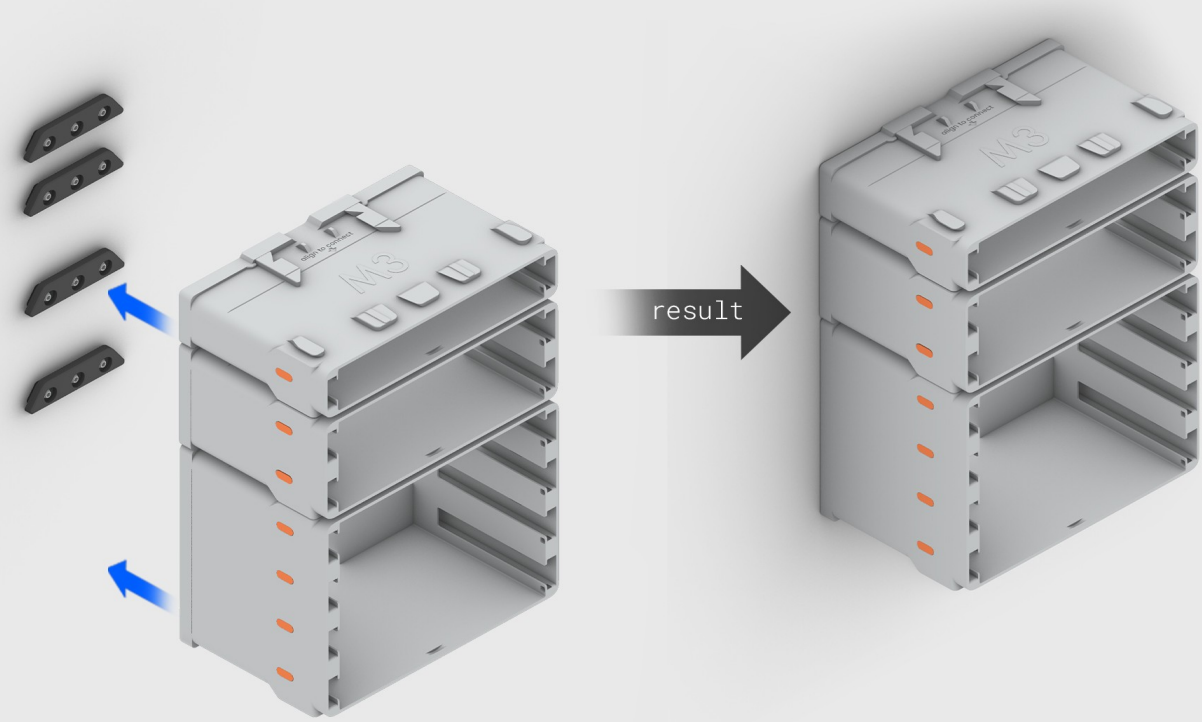

·· ·····

vault

Wall Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

9

9. after attaching wall mounts, the tower can be easily hung on a wall now

·· 9 ·····

·· ·····

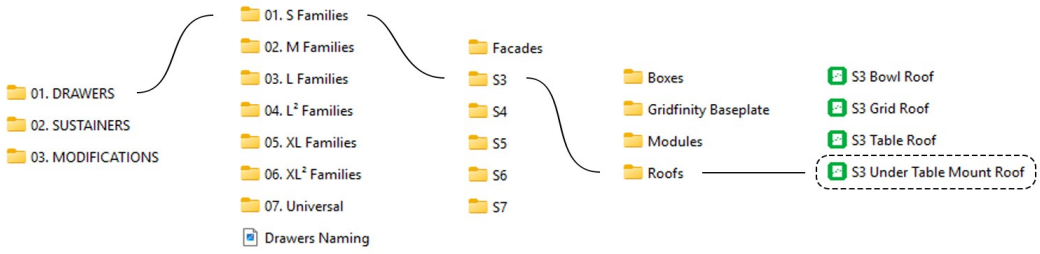

·· ·····

vault

Table Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

after printing the “Under Table Mount Roof”, we take it under the table

·· 10 ·····

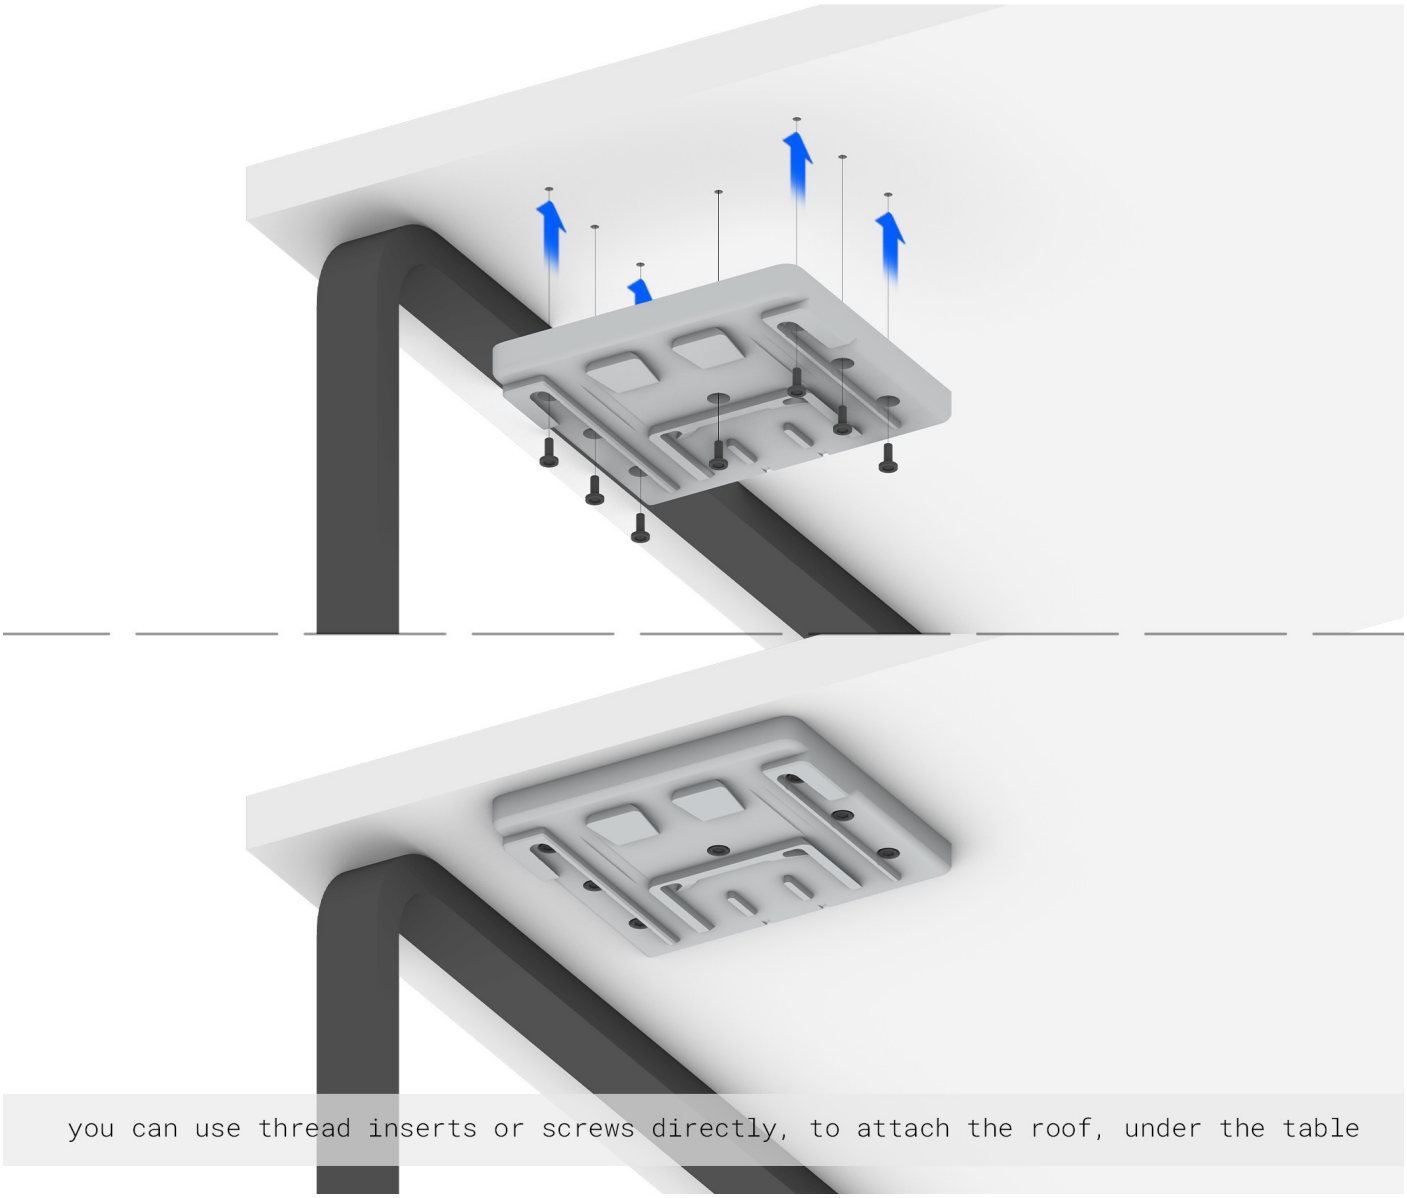

·· ·····

·· ·····

vault

Table Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

you can use thread inserts or screws directly, to attach the roof, under the table

·· 11 ·····

·· ·····

·· ·····

vault

Table Mount Instructions

#ussadesign

you can attach as many modules, as you like ·· 12

·····

·· ·····

·· ·····